ALASKA

More than a million people take an Alaskan cruise every year, making the US state one of the world's most popular cruise destinations.

It's easy to see why. Virtually all cruises sail via the Inside Passage, the spectacular labyrinth of islands, inlets, fjords and mountains that starts north of Vancouver Island and runs to Juneau, the Alaskan state capital and beyond. With the scenery come countless opportunities for wildlife watching, a wide variety of outdoor activities and the chance to explore the cultures of the many indigenous people that still live within the wilderness known as Alaska.

When to go

The Alaska cruise season runs from May to September. The best time of year to cruise Alaska depends on what you're hoping to see and do. We recommend visiting Alaska from late May through to early September for the fairest weather, with average temperatures between 15 and 26 degrees Celsius.

The cruises selected for this Alaskan Collections depart during the more favourable summer months.

Climate Alaska - Anchorage	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP
Average high in °C:	17.1	18.6	17.5	12.8
Average low in °C:	8.7	11.2	10	5.6
Average precipitation	25mm	46mm	83mm	76mm
Days with rain	7	11	15	15
Hours of sunshine per month	288	255	184	128

June

Of the few summer months in Alaska, June has the longest days, with summer solstice falling on the 21st June, brings wildflowers, lush green forest and mild temperatures to Southeast Alaska, making it a perfect time to explore. Summer solstice is an exciting time all over Alaska, so make plans to visit a town or festival before, during or after your June cruise.

July

Sunny days and amazing wildlife activity make July cruises very special indeed.

Many 1000's of whales have made their return trip to Alaska from Hawaii by this time, providing a spectacle for passengers on cruise ships throughout July.

August

Alaska is alive with activity in August, and the warm, summer days of Southeast Alaska cause the landscape to move and change. It can rain more in August than in other months, but it is also beautiful.

Experience the incredible force of calving glaciers and moving icebergs. And there is still plenty of daylight in August to experience everything you wish to.

September

Peak tourist season is over by September, so Alaska will be quieter as everyone prepares for another long, white winter; including the wildlife and locals.

Mountainsides turn beautiful shades of gold and yellow, and the mountains begin to collect snow on their peaks. As the nights grow darker and longer, there is every chance you will catch the awe-inspiring Aurora Borealis, Alaska's northern lights.

Currency

Currency used in Alaska is US Dollars. This is also the currency used onboard a cruise ship in Alaska. It is preferable if your money is changed before you leave Australia.

The Canadian Dollar (C$) is the official currency in Victoria or Vancouver, Canada, and as Alaska is in the United States, everywhere else you visit in Alaska will accept US Dollars. When paying in US Dollars in Victoria or Vancouver expect change in Canadian Dollars, so take small notes with you on any excursion.

TOP PLACES TO

ANCHORAGE

Perched on the edge of the wilderness, nestled between Cook Inlet (famous for its king salmon run) and the Turnagain Arm, is the city of Anchorage. Blending cosmopolitan excitement and the great outdoors, the city's youthful exuberance contributes to its lively nightlife, eclectic dining, and sense of adventure. Beyond the city limits of 'Alaska's Big Apple', as many as 60 glaciers are located within an hour's drive. An Anchorage cruise during the long summer days means more time to explore its natural beauty by day and sample the all-embracing culinary fare long into the evening. You'll also discover the native history, art, and crafts that are at the heart of the Alaskan identity.

DENALI

With few established trails and only one road, Denali National Park remains one of the world's last true wilderness areas. The varied subarctic landscape is home to grizzly bears, moose, caribou, Dall sheep and wolves, as well as endangered birds. Wild animals roam as they have for millennia through unspoiled backcountry of Taiga forest, alpine tundra, and snow-capped peaks. The sheer expanse of wilderness, the solitude of Denali National Park's single road, and its status as one of the last true intact subarctic ecosystems make Denali one of the best places in the country to view wildlife in their natural habitat. It is also one of the best destinations in Alaska for bike riding, off-roading and hiking.

FAIRBANKS

Fairbanks is the embodiment of the pure Alaskan spirit, with its gold rush roots, hardy locals, and famed midnight sun. Born of a turn-of-the-century trader who found himself stranded in what is present-day downtown, Fairbanks was founded when gold was discovered nearby and the trading post blossomed into a thriving city that outlasted its gold rush boom. Hugging the northern bank of the Chena River that converges with the unyielding Tanana, the Chena sternwheelers that navigate Fairbanks' waters afford breathtaking views of the city and countryside, as well as giving visitors the chance to pan for gold in one of the many creeks that still turn up flakes of gold on a daily basis.

GLACIER BAY

If you see Glacier Bay on your Alaska cruise itinerary, one thing is certain, you are in for a spectacular day filled with amazing sites and incredible photo opportunities. Spend the day onboard sailing through the 3.3 million acre National Park, which is actually the largest UNESCO protected biosphere. The park consists of more than 50 tidewater and terrestrial glaciers and snowcapped mountains. During your scenic cruise, Park Rangers will join the ship to share their knowledge of this amazing place. Glacier Bay also has abundant wildlife on display, including humpback whales, sea otters, porpoises, harbor seals, black bears, mountain goats, bald eagles and large colonies of seabirds.

JUNEAU

Astounding ice-capped mountains welcome the cruising traveller to Juneau. Alaska is called the Land of the Midnight Sun, and Juneau, its capital, shines with a wide selection of delicious dining and native Alaskan art shopping. Juneau is one of the most beautiful capital cities in America, with once-in-a-lifetime shore excursions. It has been called "Alaska's peak experience" due to its unparalleled glacier viewing from such places as Tracy Arm Fjord, the Juneau Icefields and Glacier Bay National Park. Kayak up one of the area's many protected waterways, go flightseeing, tour historic downtown or try your hand at panning for gold. The majestic Mendenhall Glacier lies nearly 12 miles outside Juneau.

VISIT IN ALASKA

KETCHIKAN

Ketchikan is known as Alaska's "First City" because it's the first major community travellers come to as they journey north. Located on an island, Ketchikan began life as an Indian fishing camp. The name Ketchikan comes from a Tlingit phrase that means "eagle with spread-out wings", a reference to a waterfall near town. Visitors to Ketchikan will be intrigued by its rich Native heritage, which includes the world's oldest collection of totem poles at Totem Heritage Center. The Haida, Tlingit and Tsimshian are all a part of the city's colourful history. Ketchikan, with its abundance of salmon, is also a sport fishing paradise. Sightseers will be impressed with both the scenic town and its surroundings, especially Misty Fjords National Monument.

SEWARD

Edging the Kenai Peninsula and framed by the glacier-covered Kenai Mountains that run along its south-eastern spine, Seward is a rustic port town whose grand terrain will leave you breathless. The pristine wilderness is home to nesting seabirds, countless islands, wetlands, and breathtaking views. As the gateway to the Kenai Fjords National Park, the Harding Icefield — an expanse of ice and snow created over 23,000 years ago — is easily within reach and culminates in 40 glaciers that dramatically calve into the sea. Situated at a grand natural intersection where bays and fjords stretching south to the Pacific meet the crested wilderness — Seward is emblematic of the wildly beautiful state that is Alaska.

SKAGWAY

In the late 1800s, fortune-seekers headed to Skagway, known as the "Gateway to the Klondike," on their way to the White Pass and Chilkoot Trails during Alaska's Gold Rush. Today, this cosy town is one of the most popular stops on the Inside Passage route for Alaska cruise lines. It retains much of its old charm, with rustic boardwalks and storefronts that transport you back to the Old West. Head to Klondike Gold Rush National Park Museum for an in-depth look at Klondike and the two routes out of Skagway — Chilkoot Pass and White Pass. The White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad runs vintage locomotives through the famously steep Chilkoot Trail and offers sweeping mountain views during its climb toward Canada.

SITKA

Sitka is a charming island community surrounded by stunning mountain and seaside vistas. A Russian settlement until the Alaska Purchase of 1867, Sitka's Russian heritage is still very much rooted in the city. A walk along the promenade in Whale Park offers a chance to view breaching humpback whales while a trek into Sitka Historical Park reveals stunning coastal trails and hundred-year-old totem poles. Venture to Tongass National Forest for up close views of wildlife, including Alaska Coastal Brown Bears, American Bald Eagles and Sitka Blacktail Deer. Head to the Sheldon Jackson Museum, the oldest standing structure in all of Alaska which is home to a small, yet impressive collection of artefacts from all of Alaska's indigenous groups.

TRACY'S ARM

Steep cliffs and glacier-covered mountains flank this fjord, fringed by the largest intact coastal temperate rain forest in the United States. Old-growth trees colonized Tracy Arm's mouth long ago as the Ice Age retreated. But further up the sinuous 48-kilometre waterway, its icy grip lingers a little. There, the twin Sawyer Glaciers flow from the peaks down to the sea, sloughing off stories-high chunks of water frozen decades or even centuries before. Tracy Arm is part of the 5.7 million acres (or around 23,000 square kilometres) of pure wilderness sheltered by the Tongass National Forest (America's largest). Visitors often see bears, whales and mountain goats roaming across various corners of this pristine area—not to mention chubby baby seals resting on the ice floes.

ROCKY MOUNTAINEER®

Enhance your Alaska cruise holiday & discover the Canadian Rockies with Rocky Mountaineer

The Canadian Rockies are a must-do extension to any Canada/Alaska cruise holiday. Thanks to the awe-inspiring vistas that showcase nature's most beautiful aspects of sparkling lakes, snowy mountains, and local wildlife at every turn. Why not enhance your cruise experience with a journey into the spectacular Rockies?

Rocky Mountaineer, the luxury tourist train operating in Western Canada, is the best way to see all this part of the world has to offer. The train takes you on a journey alongside rivers, through quaint mountain towns, and within arms-reach of stunning, snowcapped mountains. Along the way, you will have a front-row seat to fleeting wildlife, including moose, elk, bighorn sheep, bear, and soaring eagles.

The train travels only by daylight, so you won't miss a moment of the passing scenery. In the evenings, your stay will be in a selection of carefully chosen hotels, allowing time to explore a bit of the destination before boarding the train the following day.

The experience onboard the all-dome fleet features rich, historic storytelling, world-class cuisine, and a first-hand look at lush green forests and turquoise glacier-fed lakes, all from the comfort of reclining plush seats. With four unique routes to choose from, the unforgettable all-daylight journeys offer romance and history, reminding you that travelling is as much about the journey as it is about the destination.

While nature's wonders unfold out the windows, you are given the opportunity to truly unwind. Whether with a glass of wine, included in your fare, in the comfort of the all-dome coach, or on the Outdoor Viewing Platform, inhaling the fresh mountain air, Rocky Mountaineer is a chance to unplug and relax fully into the sumptuous surroundings. Enjoy classic Canadian breakfasts, three-course lunches and award winning beverages, the culinary service gives you a taste of the unique flavors of the passing regions.

The stunning scenery and delectable cuisine are enough to keep you enthralled, but beyond that, there's the chance to make new friends and connect with traveling companions while taking in this memorable trip of a lifetime.

EXTRAORDINARY ROUTES

Whether your cruise departs or arrives into Seattle, USA, or Vancouver, Canada, there is a rail route that can be added. There are four Rocky Mountaineer routes, each with its own distinctive highlights, and can be travelled either East or West bound. From scenery to unique excursions, there is no limit to creating your perfect experience through the Canadian Rockies.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE CLOUDS: VANCOUVER > KAMLOOPS > JASPER

This route lives up to its romantic name. Weaving alongside the Fraser River and through craggy mountains, you'll view the vast white expanse of the Albretha Glacier, rushing waters of Pyramid Falls, and towering Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies.

FIRST PASSAGE TO THE WEST: VANCOUVER > KAMLOOPS > LAKE LOUISE OR BANFF

History comes alive as you travel the rail route that united Canada as a nation more than 130 years ago. From lush rainforests, through the semi-arid desert, alongside the powerful Kicking Horse River, and into the stunning Rocky Mountain towns of Lake Louise or Banff.

RAINFOREST TO GOLD RUSH: VANCOUVER > WHISTLER > QUESNEL > JASPER

Recapture the romance of the Gold Rush era as you ascend through the rugged mountain terrain of Whistler, moving towards the old mining trail known as the Cariboo Wagon Road and historic Quesnel, the Gold Pan City, then onto Jasper, the quaint mountain town nestled in the snowcapped Canadian Rockies.

COASTAL PASSAGE: SEATTLE > VANCOUVER > CANADIAN ROCKIES

Travel from coastal rainforests to the peaks of the Canadian Rockies. This unique rail experience connects the cosmopolitan cities of Seattle and Vancouver to the ever-changing landscapes of British Columbia and Alberta, serving up the crème de la crème of Western Canada with a bit of America on top.

CULINARY

A journey onboard Rocky Mountaineer is a feast for the senses with gourmet cuisine accompanied by stunning scenery and award-winning service. Before each season, Rocky Mountaineer's Executive Chefs reimagine a menu inspired by the bounty of the passing regions, highlighting ingredients such as Pacific salmon and prime Alberta beef. From hearty soups made from local vegetables, to Okanagan apple crumble, you will have a decadent culinary experience of Western Canadian ingredients. The culinary trip onboard is highlighted by prize-winning wines from British Columbia's Okanagan Valley, local Canadian beers, and high-end spirits.

CRUISE

Combine a Rocky Mountaineer rail package through the Canadian Rockies with an Alaska Cruise on any number of luxurious vessels.

Departing from either Seattle, USA or Vancouver, Canada, there are a number of options to cruise in total luxury. Pairing the mountains with the deep blue sea is a natural match for those looking to explore the Great White North even further.

Ask your Cruiseco Travel Agent about adding a Rocky Mountaineer journey onto any of these spectacular cruise holidays.

RESERVATIONS AND PAYMENTS

Once you have decided on your holiday, simply ask your Cruiseeco Travel Agent to book it with us. On confirmation of your booking, a written confirmation will be sent to your Cruiseeco Travel Agent. An option will be given for 3-7 days and before the option expires it will be necessary for you to pay a deposit. The deposit amount required to secure your holiday depends on the cruise line booked and may also depend on the length of your cruise.

A minimum deposit of $1000 per person will be payable. Your Cruiseeco Travel Agent will advise you at the time of booking should any additional deposit amount be required and when it is due. This deposit secures your cruise berth and hotel room.

Final payment is due 120 days prior to departure from Australia. Some cruise lines may require final payments earlier.

If your booking is made within 120 days of departure from Australia, full payment will be due immediately. Failure to pay the deposit by the option due date may result in the cancellation of your booking.

Any special meal requirements will be made on a "request" basis only and cannot be guaranteed. Please advise your Cruiseeco Travel Agent of your requirements at time of booking.

WHAT'S NOT INCLUDED IN YOUR HOLIDAY PRICE

Gratuities where not specified, passport and visa fees, insurances of all kinds, laundry, phone calls, beverages (except as specifically mentioned in each itinerary), items of a personal nature, etc. Specialty restaurants on board your cruise ship may also incur a supplementary charge.

Hotel breakfasts are not included unless specified.

The price does not cover costs and expenses, including the return to your home, if you leave the cruise of your own Volition, or due to illness, or as a consequence of official action by the government.

SIGHTSEEING, TRANSFERS & RAIL

Sightseeing tours, transfers & rail journeys are included where specified, and are all subject to availability at the time of booking.

Sightseeing tours are subject to change at any time. Sightseeing tours, transfers and rail may be subject to minimum numbers which, if not met, may result in an increased cost for that service.

All transfers are provided on a 'seat in coach' basis unless otherwise specified.

†Transfers between home and airport are valid in Sydney, Brisbane, Melbourne, Adelaide and Perth. Transfers are only included up to 50 kms between home/airport. Further distances may require a supplement.

ITINERARY CHANGES

Each itinerary is subject to change up to and during the voyage, at the cruise line's discretion.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION

Travel documents will be sent to you approximately 30 days prior to departure from Australia (providing full payment has been received). If you are departing Australia earlier, please ask your Cruiseeco Travel Agent to request your travel documents in good time.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

We recommend that you obtain comprehensive international travel and medical insurance before paying a deposit. Failure to obtain travel insurance will not waive any cancellation fees in the event that you need to cancel your trip.

CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS

In the unfortunate event that you should have to cancel your holiday, notice of cancellation must be made in writing to your Cruiseeco Travel Agent. The day that the written notice is received by Cruiseeco will be considered the date that your cancellation has been made.

Certain cancellation fees will apply to your holiday, if cancelled after the deposit or final payment has been made. These cancellation fees will be levied by the cruise line and possibly the airline and other suppliers, and will be greater the closer to your travel date that you cancel. You should check very carefully with your Cruiseeco Travel Agent what these fees are before you make a booking.

A fee of $25.00 per person will be charged for any revision or alteration made to a reservation after the booking is confirmed.

For full terms and conditions of each cruise line, including their cancellation policies, please refer to <https://www.cruising.com.au>

These cancellation penalties are in addition to any cancellation fees that may be levied by your Cruiseeco Travel Agent.

Should you cancel your flights after the air tickets have been issued, additional cancellation charges will apply to the above stated cancellation fees.
